

Town of Barrington

$1.5 million to support the construction of a new Town Hall and Emergency Operations Center.

Community College System Of New Hampshire

$1,000,000 to extend classrooms at the Susan Huard Advanced Technologies center to include an outdoor laboratory to better prepare graduates to meet the needs of a diversified workforce.

Community Health Action Networks

$700,000 to implement new health information technology that will enable community health centers in Manchester, Somersworth, Portsmouth, Rochester, Laconia, Newmarket, and Raymond to improve population health.

Town of Derry

$3,200,000 to extend a municipal sewer line on Route 28 South through Derry to service existing businesses and residences.

City of Dover

$3,452,972 for the improvement of water system resiliency by providing a connection between existing regional water systems throughout 12 seacoast communities.

Town of Exeter

$600,000 for the to make emergency repairs to failing sewers that run under the Squamscott River.

Town of Hampton

$1,376,000 for the purchase of new radio equipment in the town of Hampton to support the work of public safety and law enforcement agencies.

City of Laconia

$96,250 for the construction of a storage facility to house equipment and criminal evidence in a temperature and climate-controlled facility.

Town of Londonderry

$4,000,000 for the construction of a municipal sewer line and pump station to connect existing infrastructure to future planned developments.

Town of Londonderry

$75,000 for the purchase of new dispatch workstations at the Police Department to meet the current needs of the agency and increase reliability and offer enhanced network security.

City of Manchester

$338,000 for the renovation of the City of Manchester's Emergency Operations Center to ensure agencies can support planned and unplanned events in the City and the region.

Manchester Police Department

$300,000 to fully fund the acquisition and implementation of gunshot recognition technology.

NH Jobs for America's Graduates

$300,000 to launch four JAG Middle School programs to help develop students' skills and increase their engagement related to academics, career pathways, and preparation for high school completion.

City of Portsmouth

$600,000 to replace a 60 year old water line that runs under Little Bay and serves communities throughout the Seacoast.

Saint Anselm College

$2,200,000 to help create a state-of-the-art health care facility using cutting-edge technology to help create a path for students to build healthcare careers in New Hampshire.

Town of Sandwich

$1.65 million for the Sandwich Broadband ReConnect Project to establish broadband in the Town of Sandwich.

Town of Seabrook

$750,000 to improve the resilience of the town's Wastewater Treatment Facility and Pump Station, which are susceptible to risks associated with climate change.

Strafford County Sheriff's Department

$752,000 to make needed upgrades to their radio technology.

Town of Stratham

$43,000 to purchase cruiser dashboard cameras to improve mutual respect during police-citizen encounters and increase police transparency.

Starting Point

$200,000 to renovate their building to use as an advocacy center to serve more than 600 domestic violence victims and families in Carroll County annually.

University of New Hampshire

$1,000,000 to make enhancements to the Child Study and Development Center at UNH, to help create an Early Child Institute for Excellence, and to improve child care and education in New Hampshire.

YWCA

$750,000 to fully fund the expansion of existing ACERT programs and enhance trauma-informed training for law enforcement and first responders so they can best respond to children who have experienced trauma.